trichomanes Common or Maidenhair Spleenwort. Forms a neat rosette of narrow, dark green fronds, best in dryish conditions. A cold-hardy fern. Height 15-40cm.	9cm Liner (M)	£0.84	£0.86	£0.93	£1.07
Athyrium
filix-femina 'Frizelliae' (New Item) Irish Tatting Fern. Deciduous. Requires shade to semi-shady situation. This is a distinctive form, the long green narrow fronds resembling a string of beads. Height 45cm.	9cm Liner (M)	£0.84	£0.86	£0.93	£1.07
filix-femina 'Rotstiel' Ideal for pond margins or shady borders. This hardy, deciduous variety of Lady Fern forms dense mounds of lance-shaped fronds with feathery foliage and red stems. Height 60cm.	9cm Liner (M)	£0.84	£0.86	£0.93	£1.07
filix-femina 'Vernoniae' A beautiful, feathery form of its type, preferring a moist cool shaded site. Deciduous. Height 60cm.	9cm Liner (M)	£0.84	£0.86	£0.93	£1.07
filix-femina 'Victoriae' A very distinctive form with fronds up to 1m tall and narrow pinnae which are paired so as to form crosses, each having a terminal crest.	9cm Liner (M)	£0.84	£0.86	£0.93	£1.07
nipponicum 'Red Beauty' (New Item) A stunning new selection with red stems and veins and silver variegated leaves. The red colouration is less apparent in young plants, but develops in the second and third year. Deciduous, but fully hardy, compact habit, not reappearing until late spring (April). Best in damp well drained soil, in a sheltered shady place where it will illuminate any dark corner.	9cm Liner (M)	£0.88	£0.91	£0.98	£1.13
nipponicum pictum The Japanese Painted Fern. Unique because of the metallic colour of its fronds. Height 60cm. Spread 45cm. Fully hardy. Deciduous.	9cm Liner (M)	£0.88	£0.91	£0.98	£1.13
otophorum 'Okanum' Semi-evergreen, handsome fronds with broad, pale green, almost glaucous leaves. Noticeable maroon-coloured spores in late summer. Prefers shade, ideal for under trees. Height 60cm.	9cm Liner (M)	£0.84	£0.86	£0.93	£1.07

Hardy Ferns

Product Name	Specification	500+	100+	60+	20+
Blechnum
spicant
Hard Fern. A hardy, evergreen, little fern, with a neat compact growth habit of comb-like fronds. Prefers a shady situation in acid soil. Height 45cm.
	9cm Liner (M)	£0.84	£0.86	£0.93	£1.07
Cheilanthes
lanosa (New Item)
The fronds of this small fern are an attractive grey green with the undersides covered in silver hairs. The plants originate from the desert regions of North America, so cold is not a problem. They do, however, need to be protected from the winter wet. Evergreen Height/Spread 15-30cm (6-12in)
	9cm Liner (M)	£0.93	£0.95	£1.03	£1.18
Cyrtomium
falcatum
Japanese Holly Fern. This fern is prized for its decorative, dark green leathery fronds. Plants are hardy and long-lived. Will grow in acid or alkaline soil.
	9cm Liner (M)	£0.84	£0.86	£0.93	£1.07
falcatum caryotideum (New Item)
Netvein Holly Fern, as the name suggests, has dark stems and veins, giving it a distinctive appearance and it does well in part sun or part shade, tolerating more sunlight & drought than most ferns (though preferring perpetually moist soil, with good drainage, in partial shade), making it a good choice for containers, rock gardens, or rocky ground, where not many ferns would do as well.
	9cm Liner (M)	£0.88	£0.91	£0.98	£1.13
fortunei
The Japanese Holly Fern. Dark glossy green fronds with broad leaves. Height 60cm Spread 45cm. Evergreen.
	9cm Liner (S)	£0.79	£0.81	£0.88	£1.01
fortunei clivicola
This fern is like Cyrtomium falcatum except pinnae are pale, non-glossy green in colour. They have lobed margins and the fronds are more spreading. Evergreen. Height 38cm.
	9cm Liner (M)	£0.84	£0.86	£0.93	£1.07
Dicksonia
antarctica
Soft Tree Fern. Plants have a spreading crown of many, dark green, harsh textured fronds and a large fibrous trunk. This is seemingly the hardiest of all tree ferns in cultivation. Height 6m x 75cm. Fronds 1.2-2.5m x 75cm.
	9cm Liner (M)	£0.88	£0.91	£0.98	£1.13
Dryopteris
affinis
Scaly Male Fern. Common in woods and shady places, also frequent in the open on hillsides and in mountains, especially among rocks. Fronds typically 30-120 cm. Very noticeable at a distance in early summer when the yellowish-green fronds appear on the hillsides; these become darker later in the year. Another native species, and a super ornamental in its own right. A British Dryopteris wallichiana.
	9cm Liner (M)	£0.84	£0.86	£0.93	£1.07
affinis 'Crispa Congesta'
Golden Male Fern. Produces crisp congested fronds, neat in appearance. Likes shady, moist, conditions and well-drained soil. Height 30cm. Semi-evergreen.
	9cm Liner (M)	£0.84	£0.86	£0.93	£1.07
affinis 'Cristata The King'
King of British Ferns. Long-lived, evenly arching, regal, dark green fronds from a symmetrical crown. Prefers partial shade. Height 90cm.
	9cm Liner (M)	£0.84	£0.86	£0.93	£1.07
affinis 'Pinderi'
Semi-evergreen. Sun or shade. Height 70-90cm.
	9cm Liner (M)	£0.84	£0.86	£0.93	£1.07
affinis 'Polydactyla Dadd'
Height 90cm. Deciduous, prefers well-drained site in the shade. The crests often little more than forks on the pinnae.
	9cm Liner (M)	£0.84	£0.86	£0.93	£1.07

Hardy Ferns

Product Name	Specification	500+	100+	60+	20+
Dryopteris
atrata The Shaggy Shield Fern. The mature fronds are dark green, slightly hairy, and unfold resembling the shape of an elephant's trunk. Requires well-drained soil, shade to partial sun and plenty of moisture. An easily grown species. Very hardy. Height 90cm.	9cm Liner (M)	£0.84	£0.86	£0.93	£1.07
austriaca 'Lepidota Cristata' A crested form of 'Lepidota', with the leafy parts of the laminae similarly reduced in width. A very elegant airy plant. Height 60cm.	9cm Liner (M)	£0.84	£0.86	£0.93	£1.07 buschiana Glossy fronds in an eye-catching shade of pale green, form an attractive plant for a shaded border. Height and spread 70cm x 90cm.	9cm Liner (M)	£0.84	£0.86	£0.93	£1.07 carthusiana (New Item) A rare British native. The Narrow Buckler Fern.	9cm Liner (M)	£0.84	£0.86	£0.93	£1.07
crassirhizoma (New Item) A lovely fern with dark scaled stipes not unlike D. wallichiana but with squarer pinnules and fresh green look. Deciduous.	9cm Liner (M)	£0.93	£0.95	£1.03	£1.18 cristata Crested Shield Fern. An attractive fern of wet areas. Fronds develop in an open rosette, with the fertile fronds being held erect and the sterile ones spreading. Plants grow easily in an acid soil in a shady position and plenty of moisture.	9cm Liner (M)	£0.84	£0.86	£0.93	£1.07
dilatata 'Crispa Whiteside' Cristate Broad Buckler Fern. Formerly listed as austriaca. Deciduous. A similar but slightly smaller form of the native Broad Buckler Fern with beautiful crisped, golden-green wavy fronds. It prefers shade and is ideal for woodland areas. Height 60cm.	9cm Liner (M)	£0.84	£0.86	£0.93	£1.07 erythrosora The Japanese Rosy Buckler Fern. An outstanding fern whose foliage colour in the spring is a rich rosy-brown, maturing green later and decorated with scarlet spore capsules on the reverse of the fronds. Height 60cm. Spread 30cm. Evergreen.	9cm Liner (M)	£0.84	£0.86	£0.93	£1.07
erythrosora prolifica Same as erythrosora, but bulbils are sometimes produced.	9cm Liner (M)	£0.84	£0.86	£0.93	£1.07
felix-mas Our beloved native male fern.	9cm Liner (M)	£0.84	£0.86	£0.93	£1.07
filix-mas 'Barnesii' Height 1-1.2m. Very tall fern, potentially one of the tallest for dryish borders. Fronds narrow, pinnate-bipinnatifid. Fronds are long and arching.	9cm Liner (M)	£0.84	£0.86	£0.93	£1.07
filix-mas 'Crispa Cristata' Cristate Male Fern. Semi-evergreen. Compact growth with crisped fronds ruffled at the edges. Height 45cm.	9cm Liner (M)	£0.84	£0.86	£0.93	£1.07
filix-mas 'Linearis Polydactyla' Requires semi-shade and a neutral to acid soil. Semi-evergreen. A tall, slender fern with thin, airy fronds. Height 90cm.	9cm Liner (M)	£0.84	£0.86	£0.93	£1.07
goldiana Giant Wood Fern. The new fronds of this fern are covered with prominent white and brown scales and the flush on a large plant in the spring is quite decorative. Requires shady position with plenty of moisture. In cold climates can be deciduous.	9cm Liner (M)	£0.84	£0.86	£0.93	£1.07

Hardy Ferns

Product Name	Specification	500+	100+	60+	20+
Dryopteris
ludoviciana (New Item)
The tall upright growth habit and shiny/leathery dark green fronds makes a striking specimen. The fronds are up to 90cm tall and 30cm across. It is deciduous in cooler areas (evergreen in warmer areas), dying back in the winter and returning each spring. Will tolerate a great deal of drought but will perform best with moisture at its roots in loose, rich soil and protection from direct sun. Dryopteris ludoviciana (the Latinized version of the word Louisiana) is native (in swamps and wet woods) to southern United States from Florida west to Texas and as far north as Kentucky and North Carolina.
	9cm Liner (M)	£0.88	£0.91	£0.98	£1.13
marginalis
Marginal Shield Fern. Requires shade. Fronds are dark blue-green and are carried in tussocks.
	9cm Liner (M)	£0.84	£0.86	£0.93	£1.07
sieboldii
The fronds of this fern are unusual in the genus in that each consists of a few large pinnae which are leathery in texture and maybe glaucous on the underside. They are also arching or drooping in appearance. Requires shade in acid, well-drained soil.
	9cm Liner (M)	£0.88	£0.91	£0.98	£1.13
tokyoensis
Height 60-90cm. Deciduous, prefers a well-drained site in the shade. Fronds erect, narrowly lance-shaped, pinnate, pale green.
	9cm Liner (M)	£0.84	£0.86	£0.93	£1.07
wallichiana
The Japanese Male Fern. One of the most magnificent of all hardy ferns. The unfolding spring fronds are rich golden-green with the stems clothed in colourful hairs. Attractive regular foliage. Height 1m. Spread 90cm.
	9cm Liner (M)	£0.84	£0.86	£0.93	£1.07
Matteucia

	9cm Liner (M)	£0.97	£1.00	£1.08	£1.24
struthiopteris Shuttlecock Fern. A magnificent fern which is very happy even in the wettest soils. An unusual plant due to the short stem formed on mature plants. Height 90cm. Spread 60cm. Deciduous.
	9cm Liner (M)	£0.88	£0.91	£0.98	£1.13
Onoclea
sensibilis (New Item)
'THE SENSITIVE FERN' A course fern suited to moist conditions will withstand full sun. The fronds are markedly dimorphic with the fertile ones being reduced to small grape-like clusters of sporangia. Deciduous.
	9cm Liner (S)	£0.79	£0.81	£0.88	£1.01
Osmunda
regalis
The Royal Fern. A British native and one of the boldest of all the ferns. The fronds are exquisite when unrolling in the spring, when they are tinted with coppery-brown. They are also bright yellow in the autumn. Intolerant of dry soils but otherwise easy to please. Height 1.2m. Spread 90cm. Deciduous.
	9cm Liner (M)	£0.84	£0.86	£0.93	£1.07
regalis japonicum (New Item)
Closely related to Osmunda regalis, but more open with bronze spring foliage.
	9cm Liner (M)	£0.84	£0.86	£0.93	£1.07
regalis purpurescens
The Royal Fern. Grows in wet soils, usually on margins of permanent water. In cold climates can be deciduous in winter. The mid-rib of the frond is deep purple.

	9cm Liner (M)	£0.84	£0.86	£0.93	£1.07
braunii
The Holly Fern. A hardy fern which will tolerate considerable cold, although in severe climates, plants may be deciduous. New fronds are produced in a spectacular, silvery flush. Likes shady, moist conditions in acid, loamy soils.
	9cm Liner (M)	£0.84	£0.86	£0.93	£1.07
makinoi (New Item)
The lustrous fronds have many tan coloured scales on the stipe and rachis, which makes them stand out quite sharply against the brilliant green segments.
	9cm Liner (M)	£0.93	£0.95	£1.03	£1.18
munitum
The American Sword Fern. Arguably the finest evergreen hardy fern. Forms large clumps of radiating fronds tapering to a fine sword-like point which are both large and beautifully curved. A great asset given a shady or semi-shady spot. Height and spread 90cm.
	9cm Liner (M)	£0.88	£0.91	£0.98	£1.13
polyblepharum
Japanese Tassel Fern. An attractive evergreen fern which forms a rounded rosette of harshly textured, glossy, dark green fronds. New fronds are scaly and interesting. Requires shade and acid soil.
	9cm Liner (M)	£0.84	£0.86	£0.93	£1.07
rigens
Evergreen, prefers well-drained site in the shade. Fronds lance-shaped, bipinnate, tough with pinnae tips sharply pointed. New foliage delightfully yellow tinted in spring. Height 38cm.
